Immigration procedures and authorizations may take considerable time depending on a variety of factors. Therefore, we strongly recommend that international students start this process immediately after accepting the offer of admission from McGill. Detailed information on immigration processes is available at: www.mcgill.ca/internationalstudents/immigration-documents.

MANDATORY REQUIREMENTS

1. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

McGill places a high value on academic integrity in all facets of study and research. Please review the Student Rights and Responsibilities website www.mcgill.ca/students/srr/. Prior to arrival or within your first few weeks at McGill, as a newly admitted graduate student you are required to complete a short on-line Academic Integrity tutorial which is accessible under the Student Menu on Minerva (the McGill information system).

2. GRADLIFE ORIENTATION: Graduate Supervision

Graduate supervision is the backbone of graduate student success. Graduate students must participate, before registration, in a short on-line orientation on graduate supervision. You can access the GradLife Orientation on MyCourses: mycourses2.mcgill.ca/.
